Welcome

Congratulations, and welcome to Clarkson College!

You have chosen to embark on an online learning adventure. Our goal is to give you the information, guidelines, and tips you need to have for a successful and quality online education experience.

Getting Started

Your journey begins by determining if you meet all the hardware and software requirements to participate in the online education program. Clarkson College online students are required to have specific equipment to ensure compatibility and power to handle projects and tasks.

Upon registration, you will receive a Clarkson College email account. Regularly checking your Clarkson College student email is vital to your success.

Access instructions to your online course are in this manual. These instructions will also be emailed to your Clarkson College student email account prior to the start of the semester.

Take some time to explore the Canvas Tutorial for Students, available in your Canvas account. Your experience will be richer if you understand all the features available as you explore your courses.

No online experience is complete without course textbooks and establishment of a test proctor. This manual defines campus department roles and responsibilities, so you know all your points of contact.

NOTE: If you are administratively withdrawn from classes due to non-compliance of equipment requirements, you may be required to pay outstanding tuition. You may also lose financial aid, you may not receive a refund, and/or you may receive a grade of WF for all classes in which you are registered.
Test Proctor Services & Requirements

Typically, your course syllabus or course overview will indicate whether your course exams will require a proctor. You may also check with your instructor(s) if you are not sure.

Graduate Nursing Program does not use proctors for testing.

If your course exams require a proctor, by default, the proctor for all students is the Testing Center at Clarkson College, if you live within 30 miles of the Clarkson College campus. If you plan to use our local testing facility, the Testing Center web page provides important information — including location, hours, rules/responsibilities, and instructions on how to register and schedule your exams online.

Students who live more than 30 miles from the Clarkson College campus and are not able to use Clarkson’s Testing Center must submit an Off-Site Test Proctor Request form to the Testing Center for approval and implementation. This form is due the first week of classes. Once this information is processed, your proctor will be provided essential information via email in order to administer your exams. Please be aware that off-site proctors may charge exam fees.

Unless an Off-Site Test Proctor Request Form is submitted, it is assumed your proctor is the Clarkson College Testing Center.

An approved Off-Site Test Proctor must meet the Clarkson College criteria for a qualifying proctor. Use of a proctor helps ensure academic integrity.

A Qualifying Proctor

A qualifying proctor is one who has a neutral professional relationship with you. Preferably, the proctor should be an administrator, teacher, professor, librarian or other academic professional. All proctors must have the following qualifications to be approved:

- Must be an educator or administrator.
- May not be an immediate supervisor, friend or relative.
- May not be a current student at Clarkson College.
- Must have access to the Internet and his/her equipment must meet the minimum requirements as outlined on page 4 of this manual.
Further, the following expectations must be met by a qualifying proctor:

1. Proctor must be present the entire exam
2. Proctor must maintain a quiet atmosphere while the student tests
3. Proctor must provide secure storage for the student’s personal belongings away from the test area. Personal belongings include cell phone and any electronic devices, backpack, outerwear with pockets, textbooks, and any study materials.
4. Proctor must administer tests on a computer located in a secure professional environment such as a Testing Center, business, or library (not a residence).
5. Tests must be taken on a professional or business computer and not a personal computer/laptop or other device

When an appropriate qualifying proctor is located, please submit an Off-Site Proctor Request Form. Please note that it is the student’s responsibility to secure information and signature from the Off-Site Proctor, and it is the student’s responsibility to submit one form to the Clarkson College Testing Center.
Nursing
The Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) program is designed to be completed online, however nurse practitioner students are required to visit the campus at specified times. In addition, all online students are required to visit the campus for Graduate Symposium, held on the Friday before graduation.

Students enrolled in the MSN Nurse Practitioner program and the Post-MSN Nurse Practitioner certificate program are required to visit the campus for a two-day weekend during the semester the student is enrolled for each of the following clinical courses:
- NS 830 - Advanced Physical Assessment
- NS 832 - Primary Healthcare I
- NS 844 - Primary Healthcare II

Ample notice of the scheduled dates will be given.

Health Care Administration
The Master of Health Care Administration (MHA) program at Clarkson College is designed to be completely online with no on-campus requirements. MHA graduate students who choose to complete the Capstone portion of the culmination experience may be required to present capstone projects in person at Graduate Symposium, which is held the Friday before graduation. Contact your advisor for details.

Nursing Health Care Administration and Nursing Education
The Nursing Health Care Administration and Nursing Education options at Clarkson College are designed to be completely online with no on campus requirements with the exception of your presentation at Graduate Symposium; which is held the Friday before Graduation. Contact your advisor for details.

Accommodations for Your Visit
For your weekend sessions or other on campus visits, refer to the hotel accommodations on page 14.
Upon registration for your first class, you will receive a Clarkson College email account. It is very important that you check this account frequently, as Clarkson College personnel will only send email messages to this account, not to other personal email accounts. Warning: You are encouraged not to forward your Clarkson email to another outside email, such as Gmail. Messages may not forward or may end up in junk mail.

Accessing Your Account

Utilize the following steps to access your Clarkson College student email account:

1. Go to ClarksonCollege.edu.
2. Click on Resources For >> Current Students and select “Email” under the “Student Tools” section.
3. Enter your Clarkson College Email (ex. LastName.FirstName@clarksoncollege.edu) in the email address box.
4. For your password, enter the combination of the following when accessing it for the first time:
   - First two letters of your first name
   - First two letters of your last name
   - Two-digit birth month and
   - Two-digit birth day: (ex., rajo0907)

Open the Outlook application to access your email account.

Reminder: If you are using a public computer, be sure to log out of your student email by clicking on the “Sign out” link under your profile picture. Close all windows and tabs for added security.

Account Help & Assistance

If you have questions or technical issues with your email service, the Information Technology staff at Clarkson College can help. You may contact the Clarkson College Help Desk at 402.552.3911 or 800.647.5500, ext. 23911.

Note that our technical support does not provide assistance with email accounts outside the Clarkson College system.
