

Public Disclosure of Accreditation Decisions and Performance Data

Policy

The Nurse Anesthesia Program must publish honest, reliable, accurate data and information to the public regarding its academic quality and student performance. The program will publicly disclose its accreditation status and the specific academic program covered by the accreditation status, and Council name, address, telephone number, and URL. For the most recent graduating class, the program will publish the attrition, employment rate within 6 months of graduation, and first-time NCE pass rates. The program will post all information required by COA and be linked to the COA's List of Accredited Educational Programs.
