

Clarkson College

Clinical FERPA Release

In accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1976 (FERPA), as amended, a student's education records are maintained as confidential by the Clarkson College and, except for a limited number of special circumstances listed in that law, will not be released to a third party without the student's prior written consent. A student may grant permission to authorized personnel of the College to release some or all of that student's education records by completing this authorization and consent form. The student will be given a copy of the completed form. This form must be filed by the student with each office which is being requested to share information with a third party.
